Dhaulagiri Circuit Trek - 21 Days

Dhaulagiri Circuit Trek is one of the most challenging treks of Nepal, and it is for those who are seeking for expedition style experience. This trek caters the low land farming villages situated in the foothills of Himalayas to high alpine pasture, uninhabited wild valleys and close-up views of several 8000m plus peaks.

Dhaulagiri means ‘white mountain’ and Mt. Dhaulagiri(8167m); is world 7th highest peak. In Dhaulagiri Circuit Trek, we trek around this giant ‘White Mountain’ which is a rare opportunity to explore wild remote and off the beaten trail of Nepal's mountains.

Dhaulagiri Circuit trek starts from Beni(a two-three hour drive from Pokhara) and following the Myagdi Khola river passing through the beautiful Magar hamlets with terraced fields to Chhonbarden gorge towards Dhaulagiri Base Camp where we will be rewarded by awaited magnificent close up view of Dhaulagiri massif. Then conquering the French Pass 5360m we encounter exceedingly beautiful hidden valley. After crossing the Dhampus Pass 5240m, then we steep descent to Jomsom and fly back to Pokhara and Kathmandu.
